Letters from the Indian expedition represent great setting as being exercised in order to reach Fort Sully before the water falls. Tittien basis, leaded with Government afores are new on the way up to the Fort.

The biendly Tankton indians, who are in constigit sommunication with the Shout, say that all three bands of the Titonwan irite are rouming over the country between the Hisck Hills and the Missourt. The Palibakas, or Outhead division of the I ankionsis, occupying the country between the Derrile Lake and his head of the Missourt, with the fedge liamtes, who participated in the massacre on the Minnesota are disposed to carry on a war with the whites. These bands comprise only shout haif the Dakton Nation.

The remainder of the Yanktonals and Teonwan tribes are willing fand arithms to ired, nor can any of the last mentioned tribes be called implecably hostile, but may be is duced by discress counseling to come to some smiceble moterstanding, and as an article country in the Minnesota reservations, who may be with them.
